Frequently Asked Questions

Do I need to schedule a hair and make-up trial?

Yes, we highly suggest that brides have trial appointments with us 5-6 weeks prior to the day of. This way you and your stylist are confident with your look for the big day.

What should I bring with me to my hair and make-up trials?

We ask that all brides bring in any hair pieces they'd like to be included with their final look. We also recommend bringing in any photos that inspire their day of hair and make-up look.

What payment options do we offer?

We accept cash, VISA, MasterCard, Discover, and American Express. We also accept checks with a valid driver's license or ID.

How should the bridal party prepare for the big day?

We prefer all of our hair guests to arrive with clean and dry hair to allow for the best styles.

We also recommend following your normal skin care routine in the morning prior to make-up applications.

What is the difference between an up-do and a curling iron style?

Our up-dos are considered any style that requires pinning of the hair. We determine our curling iron charge based off of hair length and thickness.
